

EvOLu

As The Sun Fades Away

Following up on the debut album 00:00:00, which was released in February this year, COMEDIA is now proud to present a new single from the Berlin-based Swedish artist EvOLu.

As the sun sets and fades away
I will stay until the last day

Every time I fall
I get down
on my knees
and pray

I get down
on my knees
and pray

until the sun
is coming out

and once again

EvOLu influences comes from the vaults of late 70s, early 80s, Berlin's club scene, sci-fi and horror film music. EvOLu creates a sound of dark electronic waves with catchy hooks of tomorrow.

The new single brings light to the dark, and is built on a steady electro beat that both supports the emotions of the sad/happy lyrics and invites you to the dance floor.

The man behind EvOLu - multiartist Richard Solstjärna - has previously worked with Sweden's alternative pop princesses Ida Long and SoLBlOMMa, the Berlin-based electro synth duo Noblesse Oblige Swedish producers Andreas Ahlenius (Sabia, Miss Li, Marty Willson-Piper, Di Leva), Christer Björklund (Robyn, Papa Dee, Di Leva), Håkan Nilsson (Di Leva), and the Berlin house producer Michael Lovatt a.o..
