Tim Sells as "Nearly Kenny?"
the premier Kenny Rogers tribute artist

Port Charlotte, FL - Celebrity Direct Entertainment has announced they've reached an agreement with the premier Kenny Rogers tribute artist, Tim Sells, for exclusive performance representation. A pioneer in the world of tribute music, Sells has been performing as "The Gambler?" for over 30 years, and is well-known globally for his look-alike and sound-alike characteristics. Celebrity Direct will be handling bookings for "Nearly Kenny?" at casinos, performing arts centers, communities, and festivals throughout the United States and elsewhere.

Celebrity Direct's Cord Coslor stated, "Tim Sells has been a personal friend and client of ours for many years) we're excited to finally have him, officially, in the Celebrity Direct family. His talent is second to none, the music of Kenny Rogers is revered throughout the world, and Tim is exactly what we're looking for in a Celebrity Direct artist. He's personable, professional, easy to work with, and we've never heard a bad review from venues and fans!?"

With a career that spanned well over fifty years, and all genres, the music Kenny Rogers performed is revered throughout the world. Mr. Sells' "Nearly Kenny" show is available as a solo, perform a full theater style show with full backing band, or to backing tracks. He is also available with other fabulous tribute artists, making the ultimate country music package.

Tim Sells has been named as one of the top tribute artists, and his show is full of hit after hit.
