

Austrian singer Tom Neuwirth appears on stage and in public as Conchita Wurst. He is an artist and singer who works in the fields of music, fashion and human rights, especially for queer people. He is a television host and performer, and delivers on-stage live music either with classical orchestras or together with his live DJ and musicians.

Conchita released his second album ´From Vienna With Love? in October 2018: together with Wiener Symphoniker, the artist covered some of the greatest pop songs by the likes of Barbra Streisand, Celine Dion or Alanis Morissette.

Under the project title WURST, the artist released his electro-pop album ?T.O.M. - Truth Over Magnitude? including tracks like ?Trash All The Glam?, ?Hit Me? and ?To The Beat? which have collected millions of views on YouTube in a short timeframe.

Currently, Tom Neuwirth a.k.a. Conchita Wurst is writing his own music, hosts his own television show ´Music Impossible: Mein Song, Dein Sound!? on German national broadcaster ZDF and focusses on his own video-on-demand streaming platform WURSTTV.com.

Join the mailing list to stay up to date about his upcoming releases, music, art and tv projects, and his streaming platform with many exclusive videos by sending an email to newsletter@conchitawurst.com.

CONCHITA WURST